The Abbeyfield Society

We make time for you

At the heart of everything we do is time. Time to enjoy friendships old and new, time that is more fulfilling and interesting, time ensuring everyone is happy and safe.

As a network of over 500 communities and with our charitable heritage at the heart of our ethos, we understand that this is an opportunity to move into a new home that suits the way you want to live today. That's why we take time to discuss your choices and your unique needs, whether you are joining us as a couple or an individual, to make your next move as easy as possible.

The Abbeyfield Society has more than 60 years' experience in providing support to older people

Where we are

Situated in Hampstead Garden Suburb, Abbeyfield House is located within a lovely residential area, a short distance from local shops and public transport facilities. There are many nearby parks and gardens giving you the opportunity to enjoy the open air.

Live life to the full

We are delighted that you have made the time to take a closer look at Abbeyfield. In turn, it is our promise to you that should you choose to live with us we will dedicate our time and energy into making every day happy, sociable, comfortable and safe.

“Our garden is a beautiful place to enjoy a cup of tea in each other’s company”

Making time for you to enjoy life

Supported Housing

At Abbeyfield we offer a home from home experience and our staff are crucial to creating this homely, friendly and welcoming environment.

If you choose to live with us you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, socialising in shared lounges and dining areas with meal services to cater for your requirements.

Delicious, daily home-cooked meals and everyday house-keeping are organised and all your household bills are included in the cost, leaving you free to enjoy your time.

Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield House will always offer you the opportunities to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

We offer an extensive activity programme with our team dedicated to coordinating events. We understand the importance of your emotional and physical wellbeing and enjoying later life is crucial to this.

Keeping active is important for older people and we offer numerous opportunities to encourage this, but it's always your choice to get involved, with your independence and choice being respected.

These aspects of life at an Abbeyfield Supported House sets us apart from other providers.

Local shops and amenities are close by and there are regular outings and social events that you are free to join any time. An out of hours emergency call system is available for true peace of mind.

“There are so many friendly faces and so many things to do, I never feel lonely here”

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too. Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising purposeful activities and events, whether they are popping in for a cup of tea and a chat or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

Our volunteers represent a wide range of age and experience. We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at Abbeyfield House.
