Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life at an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

At Abbeyfield House, we have a great range of facilities offering plenty of opportunities to pursue personal interests and to enjoy the company of others – with family and friends both old and new, as well as the wider local community.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

We have 18 studio rooms which come unfurnished, allowing you to personalise your room and make it feel like home.

We have large, bright en-suites and kitchenettes in every room. If you would like to make any adjustments to your room when you move in, just chat to our staff who can assist.

Our house has a communal dining room, lounge, garden and piano room which residents are welcome to use at their leisure - perhaps to read a book, complete a crossword or entertain visiting family and friends. We often come together in this space to enjoy board games, crafts and share hobbies.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield, you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Our professional staff team are supported by a number of committed volunteers. Some just want to spend time with you and pop in for a cup of tea and a chat, whereas others get involved in the day-to-day life of our community.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why Abbeyfield House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at Abbeyfield House.

“These aspects of life at an Abbeyfield Sheltered House sets us apart from other providers.”
