Abbeyfield

BRISTOL AND KEYNSHAM

If you're looking for the perfect blend of independence, support, privacy and companionship, you've found it here at Abbeyfield Bristol & Keynsham

Your lovely self-contained, en-suite apartment can be decorated and styled with your own belongings. You can look forward to three delicious meals a day, plus daily coffee mornings in the heart of the house. And of course you can come and go as you please.

A new lease of life...

Abbeyfield provides a sense of community amongst like-minded individuals. It's an opportunity to enjoy new activities, new friends and importantly, is a positive step forward from the family home. Our friendly approach to independent living adds something extra special to everyday life in an Abbeyfield house.

We're here for you...

From fish and chips in Chew Magna and promenade walks in Weston-super-Mare, to in-house entertainment, book clubs and birthday celebrations... there's always something to look forward to – if and when you want it.

Our team members are caring, fully-trained and experienced. There's always someone around for a chat, to hang a picture, help unscrew a jar, or play an evening board game.

Peace of mind...

Not only do we have an Abbeyfield team member here 7 days a week, 24 hours a day – we take away the daily pressures too. No more maintaining your home and garden and all the worries and costs that come with it. No more unwanted knocks at the door, no more admin and bills to sort out.

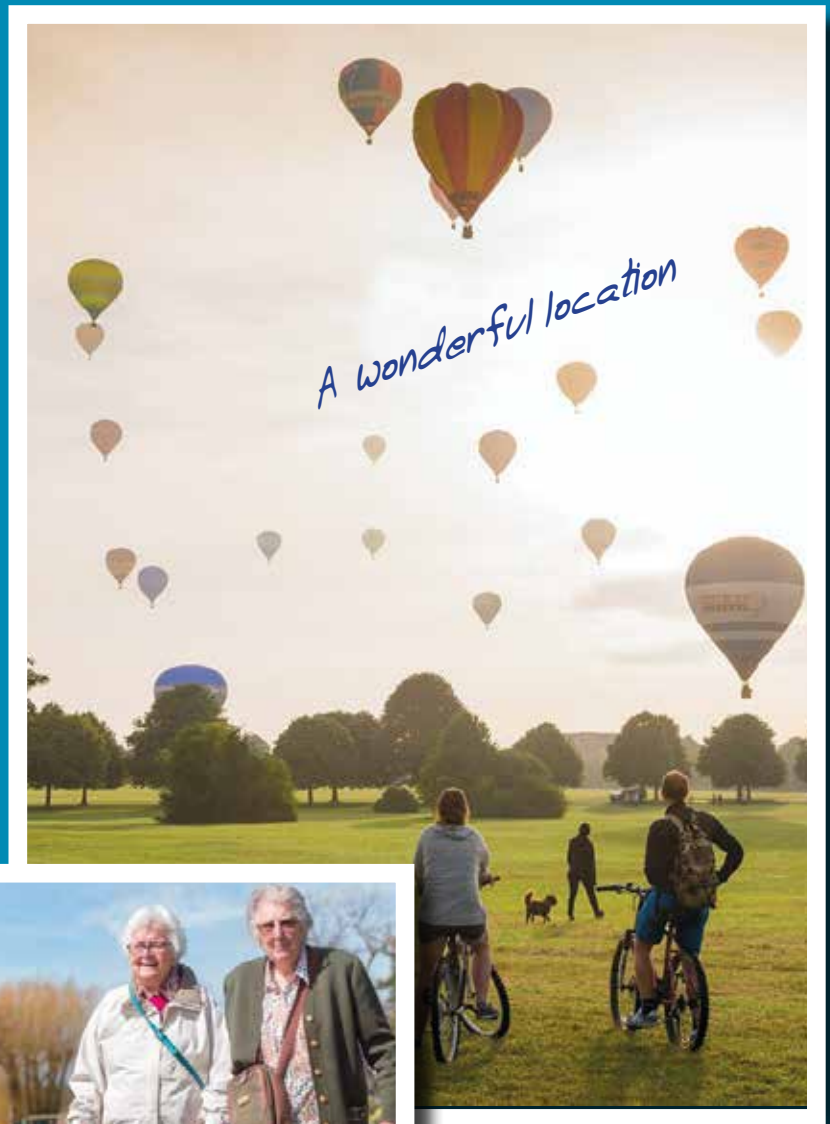

At Abbeyfield there's also no commitment to buy, thanks to a monthly rental fee, which includes meals, larder items and all the bills (including council tax, utilities and TV licence). You know where you are financially and can budget accordingly.

Affordable...

As a not-for-profit organisation, we want you to be able to afford our fees and are happy to accept housing benefit and pension credits towards your weekly rent. Our trained team members can discuss any financial concerns and may also be able to offer a bursary if additional help is needed.

Next step...

If you're over 65 and would like to proceed, please call to arrange a meeting with your house manager. We'll also require a brief medical appraisal by your own GP, to be sure that we can meet all of your needs, and then we can take it from there. It's very straightforward. We guarantee you'll soon feel right at home.
